Market Comment

Sentiment in the local market is wholly negative. The sell-off was steep yesterday amid heavy foreign selling. The close was below the key 200-day MOV, and the negative trading pattern will likely continue. Although valuations are reaching "attractive" levels, it is a bit early to expect an immediate sharp reaction before the dust settles in the MENA, and Libya in particular.

What the Day Heralds

Limak Yatirim plans IPO this year... Limak Holding's head Mr. Ozdemir has disclosed plans for Limak Yatirim to go public this year, with the company to apply to the Capital Markets Board for public offering in March. Recall that Limak Holding operates in the construction, cement, tourism, energy, infrastructure, aviation and food sectors.

Brent crude oil reaching US$ 120 a barrel due to Libya unrest... Oil climbed, approaching US$120 a barrel in London, stocks slid and the Swiss franc rose to record levels as Libya's uprising reduced shipments from Africa's third-largest producer. Brent crude hiked 3.1% to US$ 114.70 a barrel in London yesterday, trading as high as US$119.79, while April futures topped US$ 103 in New York. The Stoxx Europe 600 Index fell 0.9%, and Standard & Poor's 500 Index futures shed 0.8%. The franc gained as much as 0.8% to 92.52 against the dollar. Forecasts for oil reaching US$ 200 per barrel are starting to rise, and should prices soar on any further uprisal in the Middle East, the aftermath for the global economy would likely be dramatic.

Albaraka <ALBRK TI> to announce 4Q10 results today...

The bank has already announced its tax financials with a bottom line of TL 43 mn (up 30% q/q). The consensus net earnings estimate is TL 41 mn, while we expect TL 47 mn. For FY2010, net income was announced at TL 134 mn (up 27% y/y) in the tax financials, vs. The consensus estimate of TL 132 mn and our estimate of TL 138 mn.

Tofas	OUTPERFORM	Share Price: TL 7.42
TOASO TI	P/E: 9.6x	Target Share Price: TL 10.5

Tofas <TOASO TI> - Bottom-line slightly lower than our estimates...

Tofas has disclosed TL 119 mn net earnings for 4Q10 indicating a 10% y/y decline. The results were slightly lower than our TL 147 mn call, but slightly higher than the CNBCe consensus estimate of TL 103 mn. The y/y bottom-line contraction stems mostly from the deferred tax income of TL 77 mn recorded in 4Q09. The inclusion of 4Q10 net earnings brought the bottom-line to TL 384 mn in 2010, implying 7% y/y growth. We maintain our 'OUTPERFORM' recommendation for the stock.

At the top-line the company recorded TL 1,938 mn in 4Q10, up by 33 % y/y and up by 44% q/q, due to higher sales volume. The figure was slightly higher than both our TL 1,684 mn call and the consensus expectation of TL 1,836 mn. In cumulative terms, net sales rose by 25% y/y to TL 6,410 mn in 2010. Domestic revenues surged 41% y/y to TL 2.7 bn thanks to the robust domestic market, while exports also rose by 13% in the same period. Tofas' total sales rose by 25% y/y to 328,056 units in 2010, while total production also climbed 23% y/y to 312,245 units.

On the operational front, the company posted TL 191 mn EBITDA in 4Q10 indicating a 46% y/y and 33% q/q rises respectively. The result was slightly higher than our in-house estimate of TL 173 mn and the TL 183 mn consensus figure. The EBITDA margin was at 9.9% in 4Q10, on a y/y improvement of 90bps, which should be attributable to the increasing contribution of the new Doblo, which has higher export margins than the old model, and increased capacity utilization rate on the sales increase. On a cumulative basis, Tofas realized an EBITDA of TL 658 mn (up by 38% y/y) in 2010, and an EBITDA margin of 10.3%, comparing favorably against 9.3% in 2009.

Net debt... The net debt position decreased slightly to TL 656 mn at the end of 4Q10 from TL 718 mn in the previous quarter. Tofas' working capital requirement of TL 136 mn at the end of 3Q10 had declined to TL 59 mn at the end of 4Q10, thanks to the rising payables of the period.

Netas <NETAS TI> 4Q10: Strong operational performance...

Netas has disclosed TL 4.8 mn net earnings in the final quarter of 2010, favorable against TL 2.1 mn a year ago but trailing behind the TL 13 mn net profit of the prior quarter. Improvement at the bottom line in y/y terms stems from higher operating profitability. The last quarter cumulative bottom line figure was TL 23 mn in 2010, marking an 8% y/y decline over TL 19.1 mn net profit in 2009.

The company recorded TL 67 mn revenues in 4Q10, representing a 30% y/y rise and 35% decline in q/q terms. This brought the full-year top line to TL 271 mn, representing 28% y/y growth over TL 212 mn in 2009.

TL depreciation against US$ during the final quarter had positively impacted profitability as Netas' functional currency is US$, and most revenues are FX-denominated, while operating costs are mainly in TL. In the underlying quarter, EBITDA was at TL 7.2 mn compared to TL 0.5 mn in 4Q09, thereby denoting an impressive margin improvement over the previous year's figure of 1.1% to 10.8% in 4Q10.
